

accept - except

adverse - averse

advice - advise

affect- effect

aisle - isle

all together- altogether

along - a long

aloud- allowed

altar - alter

amoral- immoral

adverse :unfavourable, harmful averse: strongly disliking, opposed	accept : to agree to receive or do except: not including
affect: to change or make a difference to effect : a result, to bring about a result	advice : recommendations about what to do advise : to recommend something
all together: all in one place, all at once altogether: completely, on the whole	aisle :a passage between rows of seats isle : an island
aloud: out loud allowed: permitted	along :moving or extending horizontally on a long :referring to something of great length
amoral: not concerned with right or wrong immoral: not following accepted moral standards	altar : a sacred table in a church alter: to change

appraise- apprise

assent- ascent

aural- oral

balmy- barmy

bare- bear

bated- baited

bazaar- bizarre

berth- birth

born- borne

bough- bow

assent: agreement, approval  ascent: the action of rising or climbing up	appraise: to assess  apprise: to inform someone
balmy: pleasantly warm  barmy: foolish, crazy	aural: relating to the ears or hearing  oral: relating to the mouth , spoken
bated: in phrase 'with bated breath', i.e. in great  suspense  baited: with bait attached or inserted	bare: naked, to uncover  bear: to carry, to put up with
berth: a bunk in a ship, train, etc.  birth: the emergence of a baby from the womb	bazaar: a Middle Eastern market  bizarre: strange
bough: a branch of a tree  bow: to bend the head, the front of a ship	born: having started life  borne: carried

brake- break

breach- breech

broach- brooch

canvas- canvass

censure- censor

cereal- serial

chord- cord

climactic- climatic

coarse- course

complacent- complaisant

breach: to break through, or break a rule, a gap breech: the back part of a gun barrel	brake: a device for stopping a vehicle, to stop a vehicle break: to separate into pieces, a pause
canvas: a type of strong cloth canvass: to seek people's votes	broach: to raise a subject for discussion brooch: a piece of jewellery
cereal: a grass producing an edible grain, a breakfast food made from grains serial: happening in a series	censure: to criticize strongly censor: to ban parts of a book or film, a person who does this
climactic: forming a climax climatic: relating to climate	chord: a group of musical notes cord: a length of string, a cord-like body part
complacent: smug and self-satisfied complaisant: willing to please	coarse: rough course: a direction, a school subject, part of a meal

complement- compliment

council- counsel

cue- queue

curb- kerb

currant- current

defuse- diffuse

desert- dessert

discreet- discrete

disinterested- uninterested

draught- draft

council: a group of people who manage or advise counsel: advice, to advise	complement: to add to so as to improve, an addition that improves something compliment: to praise or express approval, an admiring remark
curb: to keep something in check, a control or limit kerb: (in British English) the stone edge of a pavement	cue: a signal for action, a wooden rod queue: a line of people or vehicles
defuse: to make a situation less tense diffuse: to spread over a wide area	currant: a dried grape current: happening now, a flow of water, air, or electricity
discreet: careful not to attract attention discrete: separate and distinct	desert: a waterless, empty area, to abandon someone dessert: the sweet course of a meal
draught: a current of air draft: a first version of a piece of writing	disinterested: impartial uninterested: not interested

draw- drawer

dual- duel

elicit- illicit

ensure- insure

envelop- envelope

exercise- exorcise

fawn- faun

flaunt- flout

flounder- founder

forbear- forebear

dual: having two parts duel: a fight or contest between two people	draw: an even score at the end of a game drawer: a sliding storage compartment
ensure: to make certain that something will happen insure: to provide compensation if a person dies or property is damaged	elicit: to draw out a reply or reaction illicit: not allowed by law or rules
exercise: physical activity, to do physical activity exorcise: to drive out an evil spirit	envelop: to cover or surround envelope: a paper container for a letter
flaunt: to display ostentatiously flout: to disregard a rule	fawn: a young deer, light brown faun: a mythical being, part man, part goat
forbear: to refrain forebear: an ancestor	flounder: to move clumsily, to have difficulty doing something founder: to fail

foreword- forward

freeze- frieze

grisly- grizzly

hoard- horde

imply- infer

loath- loathe

loose- lose

meter- metre

militate- mitigate

palate- palette

freeze: to turn to ice
frieze: a decoration along a wall foreword: an introduction to a book forward: onwards, ahead

hoard: a store
horde: a large crowd of people

grisly: gruesome, revolting grizzly: a type of bear

loath: reluctant, unwilling loathe: to hate

imply: to suggest indirectly infer: to draw a conclusion meter: a measuring device metre: a metric unit, rhythm in verse loose: to unfasten, to set free lose: to be deprived of, to be unable to find palate: the roof of the mouth palette: a board for mixing colours militate: to be a powerful factor against mitigate: to make less severe

pedal- peddle

pole- poll

pour- pore

practice- practice

prescribe- proscribe

principal- principle

sceptic- septic

sight- site

stationary- stationery

storey- story

pole: a long, slender piece of wood poll: voting in an election	pedal: a foot-operated lever peddle: to sell goods
practice: the use of an idea or method, the work or business of a doctor, dentist, etc. practice: to do something repeatedly to gain skill, to do something regularly	pour: to flow or cause to flow pore: a tiny opening, to study something closely
principal: most important, the head of a school principle: a fundamental rule or belief	prescribe: to authorize use of medicine, to order authoritatively proscribe: to officially forbid something
sight: the ability to see site: a location	sceptic: a person inclined to doubt septic: infected with bacteria
storey: a level of a building story: a tale or account	stationary: not moving stationery: writing materials

tortuous- torturous

wreath- wreathe

wreath: a ring-shaped arrangement of flowers etc.
wreathe: to surround or encircle tortuous: full of twists, complex torturous: full of pain or suffering